During summer holiday, I am going to Australia for a whole week. And guess what... It's the biggest nightmare in my life because I need to go to school on this trip! I have no idea about this. My mum just said it's so, and I obey. But my friend will go too. We can still play together even though we need to go to school, because playing is necessary.

For this trip, I promised to bring my ipad and play it with my friend.

It would be the best day for my summer holiday.
